

Engineering, Technology & Energy Progression

North Highland College UHI are in a unique position, as part of the University of the Highlands and Islands tertiary network, to be able to offer Engineering courses from access level right up to a masters.

