If you book accommodation you will be responsible for paying for it. You must give your landlady plenty of notice that you are coming, the number of days you are staying and the time you are expected to arrive. If you cancel at short notice, you may still be charged for the accommodation. Also, if you stay for less time than you booked, you will still be liable to pay for it.

If you experience problems booking accommodation, contact the Student Support Team at The North Highland College, Telephone 01847 889310. If you have problems getting through on the phone, leave a message at reception on 01847 889000 with a number where you may be contacted and your call will be returned.
